... Home of the HILLITES

The Arthur Hill Memorial Stadium on dedication night was a bevy of activity.

The student body — a part of the 4,000 persons who attended the three performances — see the 1949 Christmas Pageant, A Christmas Carol.

Library hours are study periods to Hillites. The two library rooms, on either side of the auditorium and seating approximately 210 students, offer materials and a place for study.

The Memorial Stadium, the newest addition to the Arthur Hill campus, is a bowl type structure.

Hungry Hillites partake of lunch and talk over the latest gossip in the third floor cafeteria. Two lunch periods, 11:30 and 12:30, each accommodates approximately 900 students.

An Arthur Hill tradition — autographing yearbooks — takes place as students exchange signatures in their 1949 Legendas.

We've Come a Long Way . . .

The gay nineties . . . high button shoes . . . the horse and buggy . . . today these ancient, whimsical expressions have a special significance. For this is the middle of the century, a time of reflection . . .

And here at Arthur Hill we have a special appreciation of the contrast between "then and now" . . . a contrast made vivid by the construction in 1940 of the modern building which we now attend—a schoolhome modern not only in its construction but in its principles of administration and teaching . . . compare this with that nostalgic era of 1900 when the first Legenda was compiled at the red brick structure on Court Street. Arthur Hill students of that day will remember it as a time of inkwells, rickety desks, and gas-lights.

In the pages of this, the 1950 Legenda, we shall accentuate the progress of half a century at Arthur Hill with reminders of those by-gone days when men were men and unruly Hillites got the hickory stick instead of eighth hours.

LEGENDA

Golden Jubilee!

1900 - 1950 . . . Fiftieth Birthday of the LEGENDA

The 1950 Legenda Staff dedicates this book to the first Legenda staff and to all those who have worked to record the history of the Arthur Hill High School since 1900. We've come a long way in the past fifty years.

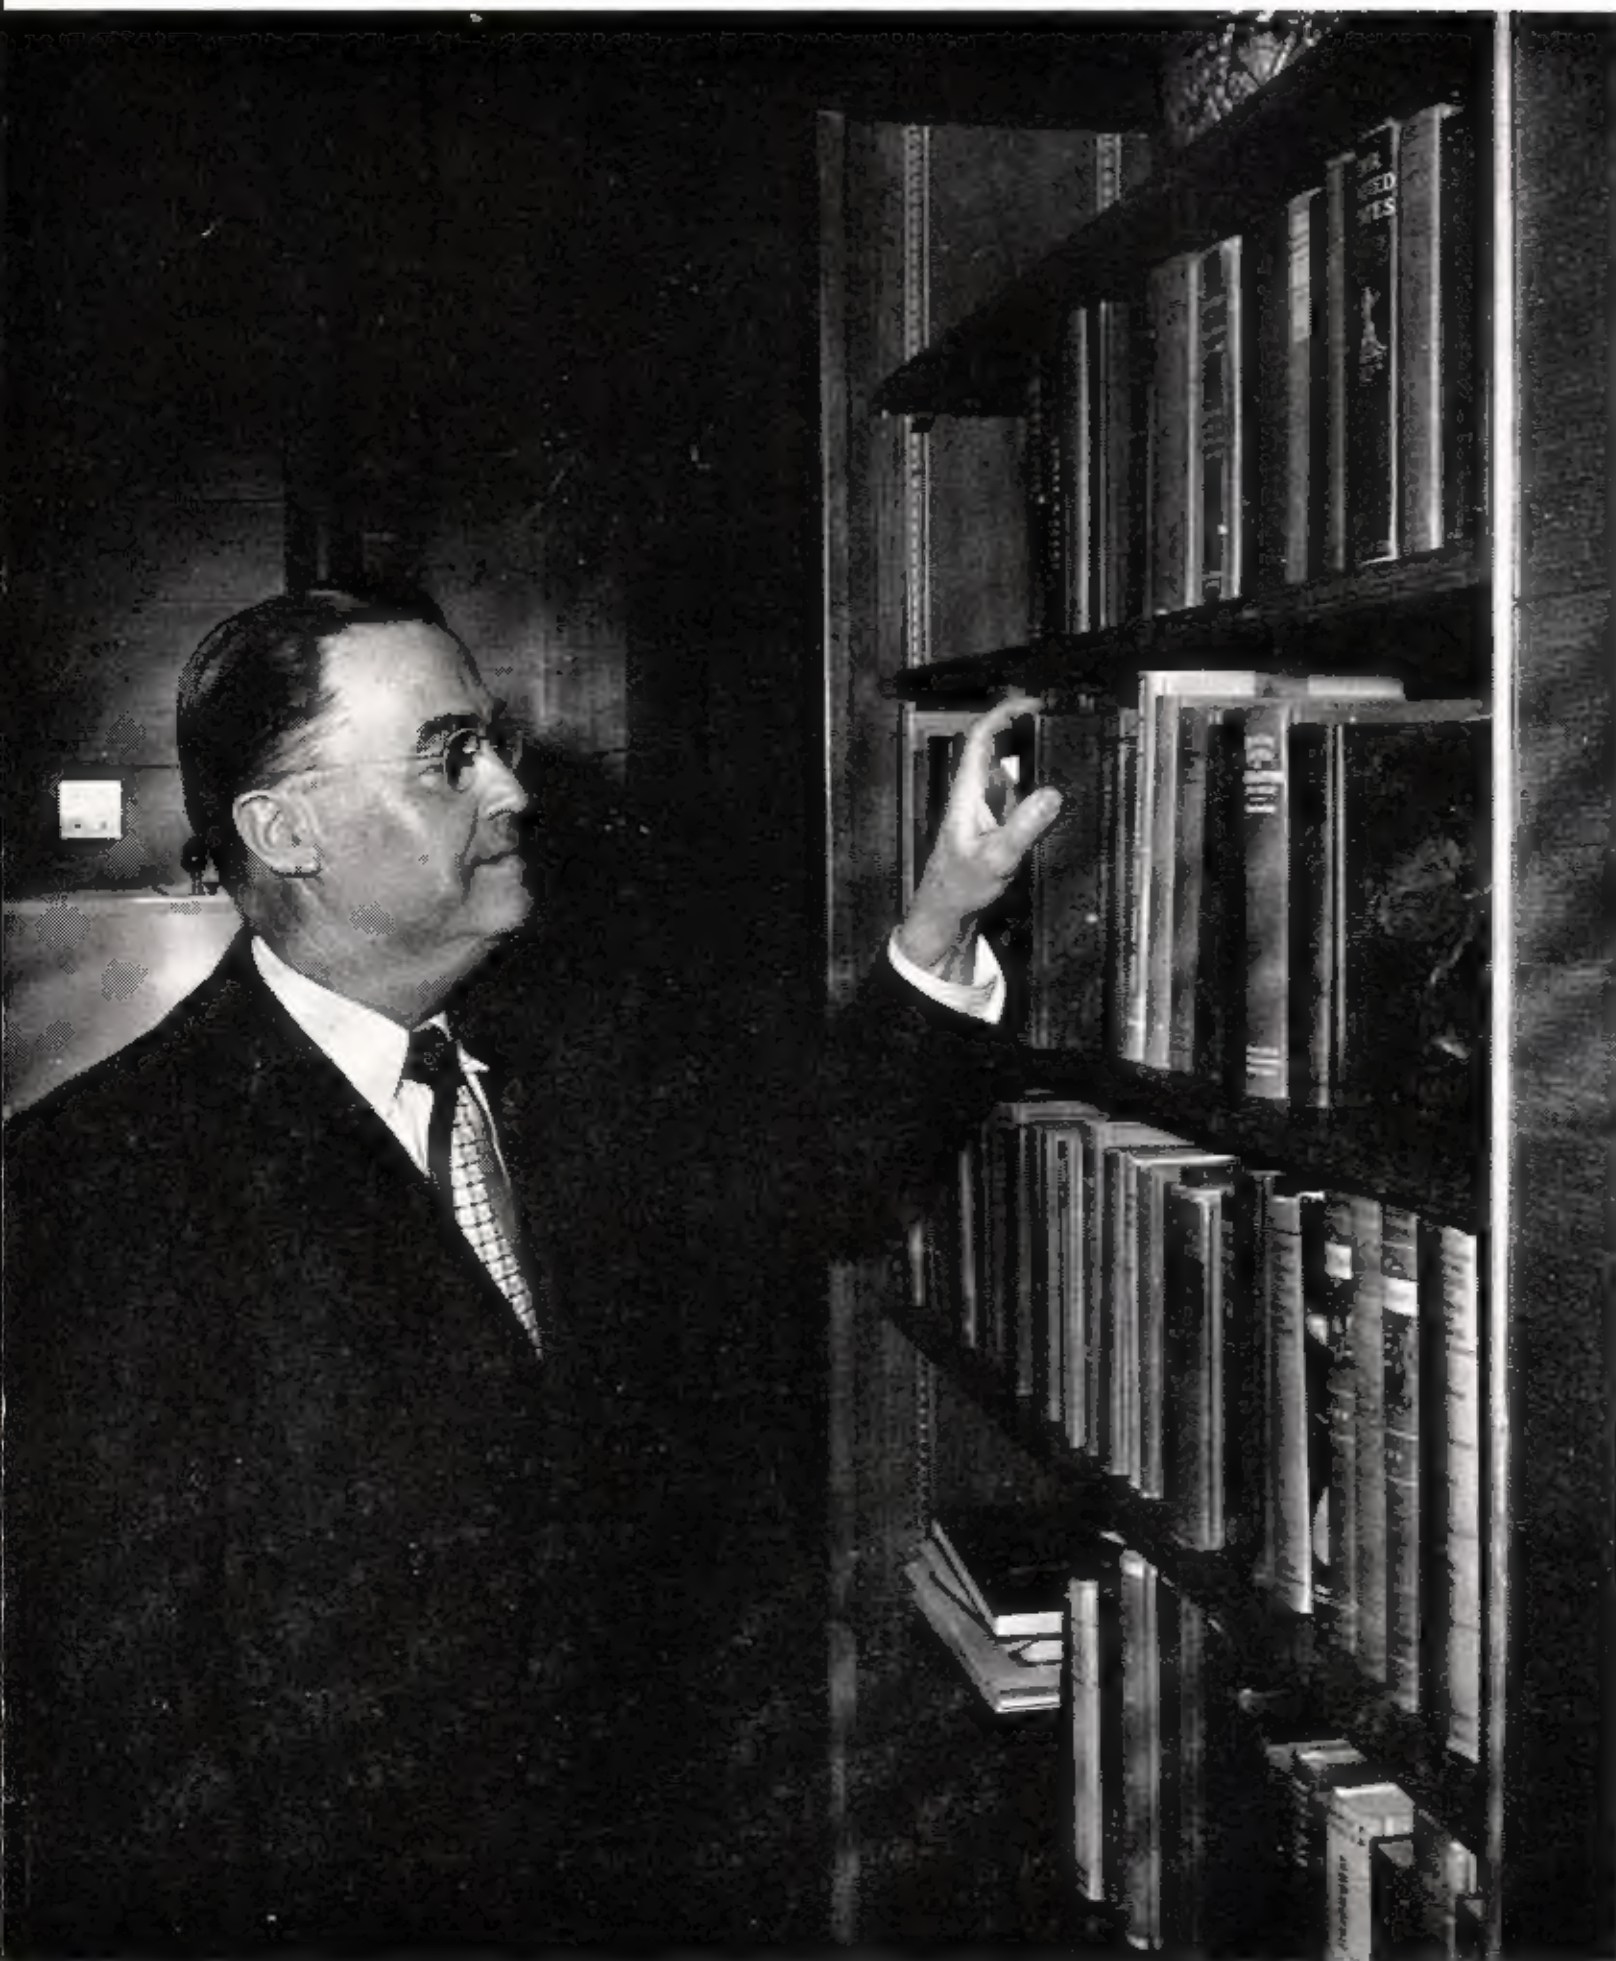

The 1900 Legenda staff members were pioneers in yearbook production at Arthur Hill and worked without many of the modern conveniences of today. This picture of the staff, complete with Gibson Girl blouses and stiff collars, was published fifty years ago in the first Legenda.

Juliana Blank, Edna Moulton, M. Abbott, Edna Heston

MR. I. M. BROCK, school principal, is known to both teachers and students as a competent administrative official and a friendly adviser. He has served as chief executive of Arthur Hill for 21 years.

ADMINISTRATION

1950 at Arthur Hill

The Coordinators of Organization and Administration in Action . . .

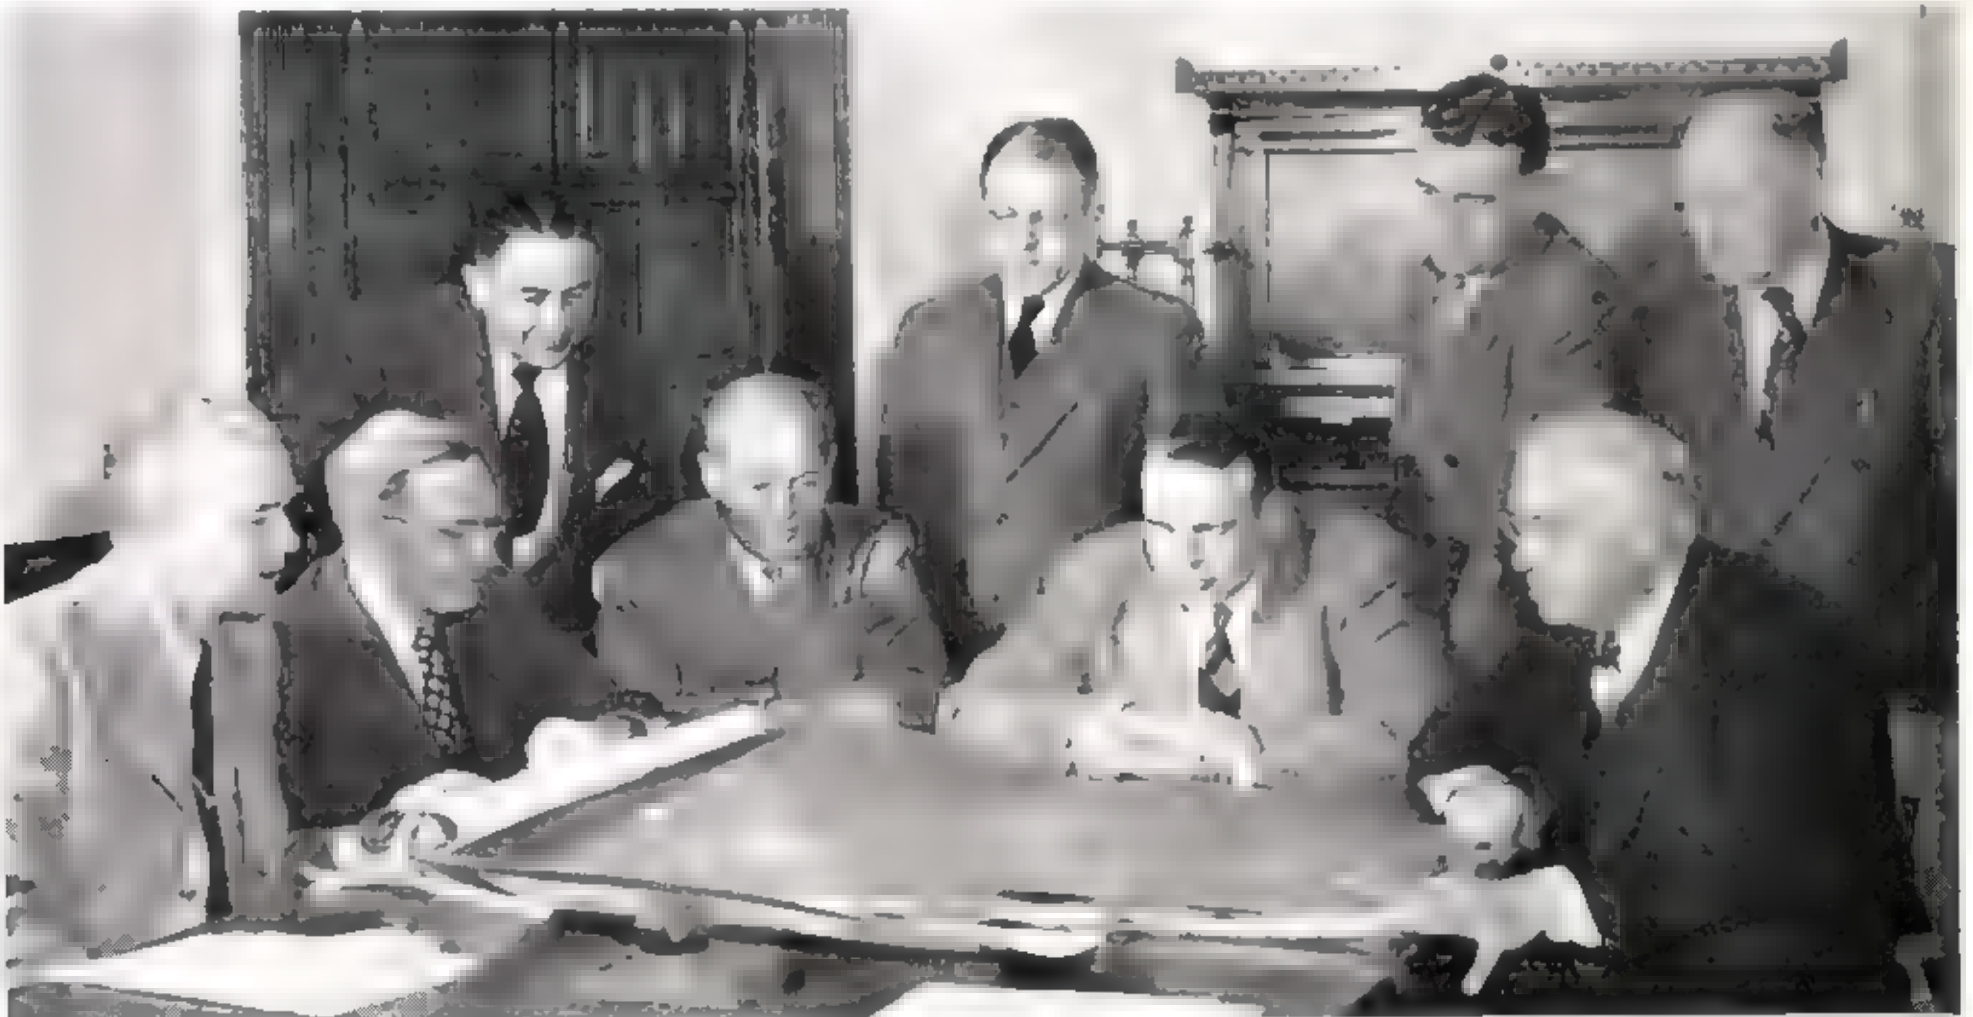

Parents and teachers at Arthur Hill consult through the Parent-Teacher Association to help the students. The P-TA members sponsor several meetings and social functions during the year, where parents can get a representative view of what their young people are accomplishing.

The faculty and students work together in organizing the student body into interest-capturing groups, and school-wide organizations, conducting campaigns, and choosing careers. It is this combination of students, teachers, and parents that has enabled Arthur Hill to progress in its democratic spirit through years.

MR. JAMES M. SHACKLETON is president of the Board of Education

Board of Education members look over plans for the East Saginaw High School of the future. They are, left to right, MR. EDWARD C. MACRAE, secretary, DR. RAYMOND A. HART, MR. RUSSELL STRACHAN, superintendent of building and grounds; MR. GEORGE D. PROSS, clerk of the board, MR. HIEL M. ROCKWELL, treasurer; MR. WALTER A. LIT-SCH, MR. J. ROBERT GRUBE, MR. CHESTER F. MILLER, superintendent of schools, and MR. HARRY P. BAKER.

OFFICE: Control Center of School Life

MISS ETHEL A. PETERSON, dean of girls, and MR. RAYMOND MORROW, assistant principal, spend the first hour of the school day at the office counter ready to counsel students and faculty. Students asking aid are GLORIA DUWE, JO ANN PRUYNE, JEAN BUSE, SALLY SORGATZ, HAROLD RICHARDS, and CATHERINE PETERS.

MISS SALLY LA BRAKE sold Dedication Game tickets to MR. R. EARL AVERY and MR. WILLIAM KESSEL in the school office.

Opening week of the school year, city teachers gather at Arthur Hill for a three day institute. The receptionists were, standing: IDA MARIE LANG, MR. C. C. COULTER, administrative assistant and supervisor of BIE Day, and JOANNE HIMSEL. Seated BETTY BROCKWAY, KAY KRUEGER, and BARBARA OLSON.

On Business. Industry, and Education Day teachers were guests of Saginaw business concerns. A group ready to visit the Chevrolet Grey Iron Foundry gathers in the hall at 10 a.m. Left to right MR. CULLEN McDONALD, MISS DOROTHEA MOUNTZ, MISS HELEN OLMSTED, MR. ALBERT FYNON, MR. KENNETH MOELLER, MR. HARRY GRAVES MILLER, MR. GORDON WHITE, MR. KENNETH POULSON, MR. LESLIE TURNER, and MR. VERN WRITER

FACULTY GROUPS Coordinate Activities

Teachers' Club Representatives for Arthur Hill are MRS. MARJORY JACOBSON, MISS GERTRUDE TURNER, MR. ALBERT DERSCH, MISS F. ALISON SPENCE, MR. R. GEORGE PURDY, MISS HELEN OLMSTED, and MISS EDITH R. JENSEN

Spending a pleasant hour after school at the Christmas Tea are MRS. COILA BULLARD, MRS. LORNA ZIEGLER, MRS. MARY STEWART, MISS HELEN OLMSTED, and MRS. MARIE CRITTENDEN, and in the foreground, MISS HELEN BEESON and MISS ELLEN GREEN. Miss Doris K. Frye, Miss Burnice Gibbs, and Miss Edith Jensen were hostesses.

Chatting at the faculty Christmas Dinner at the Tennis Club are members of the faculty Social Committee, MISS ELLEN GREEN, MISS FRANCES HINRICHSSEN, MISS HELEN BEESON, and MISS EDITH JENSEN. Missing from the picture is Miss Mary Margaret Doidge. The Committee decides where all the social gatherings are to take place, and they make all the arrangements for them.

The Christmas Dinner was enjoyed by many members of the faculty, among them were. MISS DORIS K. FRYE, MISS F. ALISON SPENCE, MRS. MABEL KING, MRS. RUTH STEPHENS, MISS BURNICE GIBBS, MR. DAVID GAINES, and in the foreground MR. STANLEY D. SCHUBERT.

P-TA Urges Close Cooperation Between Parents and Teachers

MR. I. M. BROCK is ready to assist MRS. DOUGLAS FERRIBY, MR. A. R. HANSEN, and MR. DOUGLAS FERRIBY, while they engage in a game of Canasta.

At the P-TA Exhibit, ALLEN JOHNSON, MR. A. A. PIERTZ, MRS. HAROLD MORFORD, and JO ANNE MORFORD admire work done by the shop students. Projects were prepared as part of regular class work

Parents enjoy this annual gathering of the P-TA card Party where they can make new acquaintances and renew old friendships

At the P-TA card party MRS. SALLIE BROWN, MRS. I. M. BROCK, MRS. MARTIN BRITON, MISS ETHEL PETERSON, and MRS. JOHN BENSON enjoy a card game. Card party proceeds replenish the welfare fund each year

At Open House SALLY HOLLAND, MR. HOWARD LYTLE, ARDIN CLARE, PETE BOOS, and RICHARD POPP look over an agricultural map of different types of soil

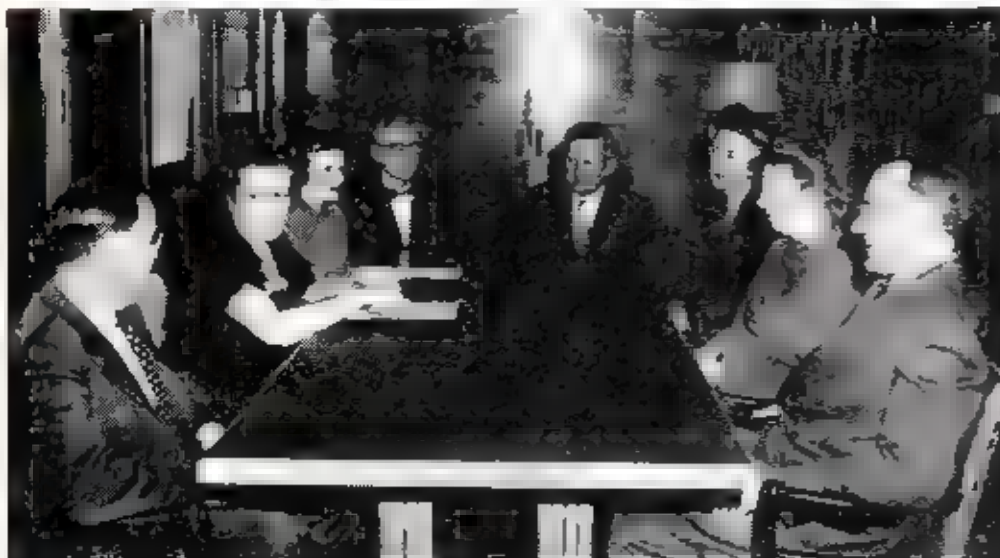

Winning the birthday cake at the P-TA card party was MRS. WARREN BEARSLEY. Her friends, MRS. IGNACE HOFFMAN, MRS. N. D. STERLING and MRS. WILLIAM CLARK, admire the cake

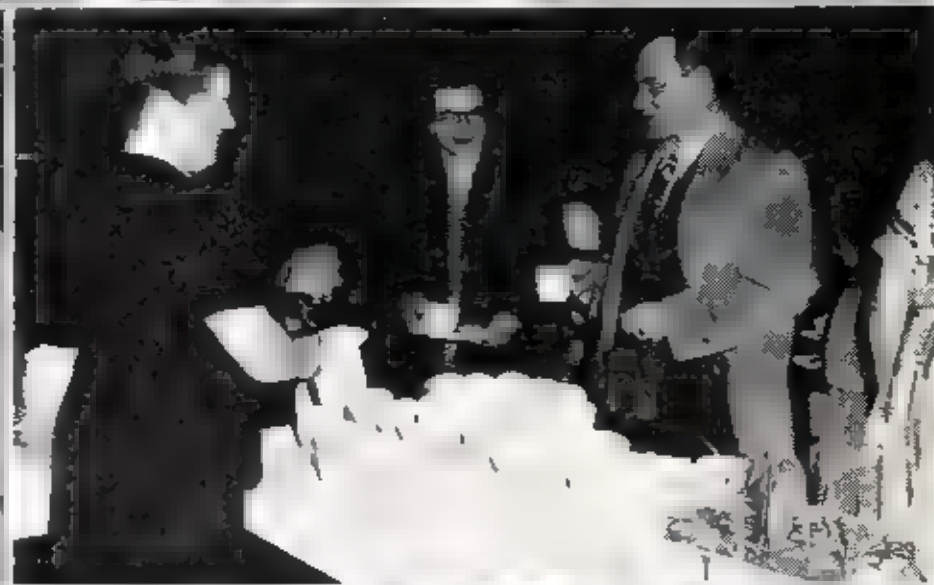

At P-TA Open House MRS. C. R. BUSE, MRS. MARY STEWART, MRS. A. R. HANSEN, and MRS. ELDFN KAYLOR gather for a little chat while refreshments are served.

A GOOD MIXER is the buffet style of serving at most P-TA events.

At the P-TA exhibit MISS FLOISE BACON and JAMES FOX show their biology display to MR. and MRS. J. P. WENZEL.

Preparing the refreshments in the school kitchen for the P-TA Card Party are MRS. PAUL ANDRE and MR. FRANK NIEDERSTADT.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT: Experience in Democratic Living

Advisory is the first 15 minutes of the day at Arthur Hill. Students meet with the same teacher adviser for the three years of their stay in senior high. Incoming students, approximately 33 to each teacher, are assigned alphabetically to their advisories. This gives each group about the same percentage of juniors, seniors, and sophomores. They organize by electing officers, and are represented in the student cabinet by their president, who is elected each semester. All-school campaigns, elections, business, and enrollments are done by and through advisory.

Student Cabinet officers, ANDRIS RONIS, first semester vice-president; DAVID VANCL, first semester secretary and second semester vice-president; WILLIAM ROOKER, first semester treasurer; and PAUL HINKIN, school president for both semesters, discuss the SO campaign. Missing from the picture is Brenden Wells, second semester treasurer and Donald Becker, second semester secretary.

TB seals sale led by MR. JOHN DAY, SHIRLEY KLEIN, and SHELLEY DICKESON closed with a total of $233.33. Arthur Hill led all schools with thirty-three advisories turning in a quota of $5.00 each.

Councilmen RALPH FRAHM, GLENN HOERNLEIN, ANDRIS RONIS, and CHARLES HISE attended a council meeting at the city hall on Student Government Day.

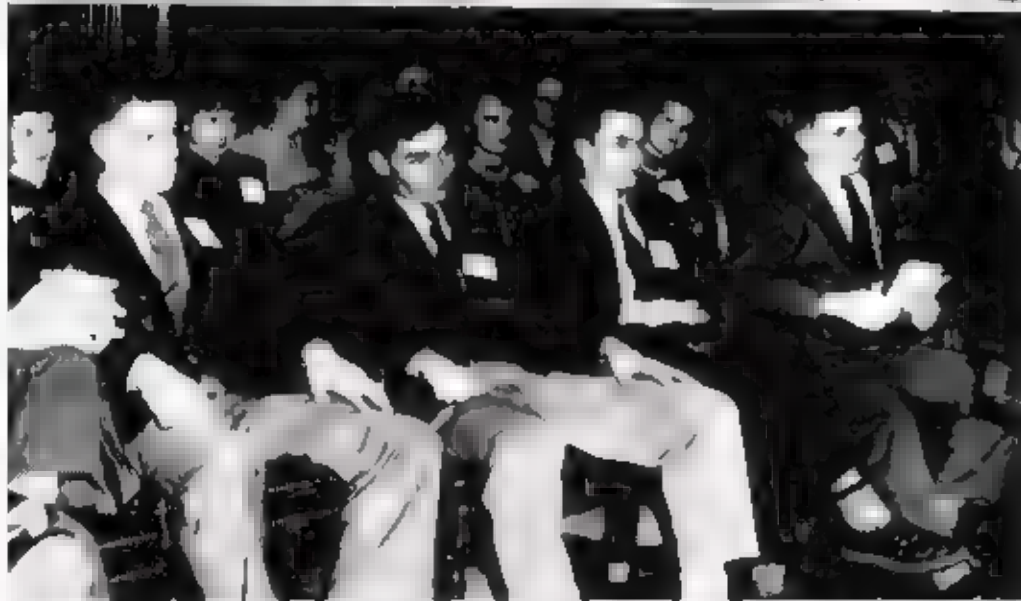

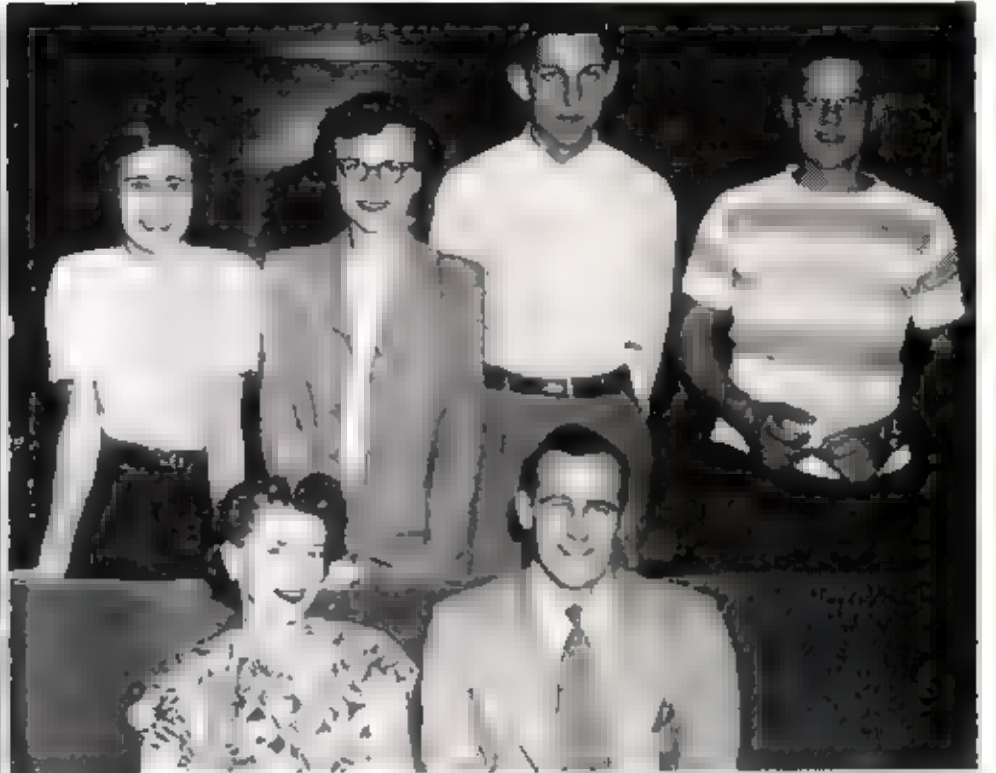

Student Government Day officials matched wits in meetings and at luncheon where they were guests of the American Legion Post 22 and Elks 47.

Again this year the girls were successful in selling the most student organization tickets. They boast a record of 93.6 per cent to the boys' 89.9 per cent for a total sale of 1677 school memberships. Campaign leaders were JUDITH JOHNSON and DORIS ALBERTS for the girls. NELSON WING and HOWARD TESSMAN led the boys. MISS CONSTANCE MC WETHY and MR. DAVID GAINES were elected teacher sponsors.

Leaders of the Junior Red Cross drive, EVA NOBLET, GARDNER DELGADO, JEROME LAKE, chairman, JOANNE STOBART, DOW TUNIS, and MRS. JUNE O'DELL, adviser, look over posters for their campaign. Arthur Hill contributed $384.35 this year.

CITY MANAGER MILLER confers with his student counterparts, PAUL HINKIN of Arthur Hill and GERALD KRYSZAK of Saginaw High.

PETER YOUNG has the attention of the Arthur Hill delegation as he summons courage to address the city council.

SERVICE GROUPS Make School a Better Place to Live

Starting their school day at 7:30 a.m. are Service Club members. They are, left to right, GRETA GLASBY, MR. MORROW, SALLY MOSER, and MARY MILLER

Student store attendants, JOAN KLEIN, ALICE MYERS, PATRICIA HOLLY, JEANNE ITTNER, PHYLLIS GAYLORD, sell supplies to students during both noon hours, and before school begins every morning.

Senior Hostesses welcome guests and guide them through the school. They are, standing, JUDY JOHNSON, KAY KRUEGER, GRETA MYERS, LORRAINE AVERY, BARBARA OLSON, and SALLY IPPEL. Seated is CAROL RICHMOND. Each girl spends one period a day in the Community Room.

STUDENT GROUPS Aid Hillite Health, Orientation

Representing Arthur Hill on the City Junior Red Cross Council this year were JOANNE STOBART, JERRY LAKE, and MURIEL LIEFFERS. These students directed the membership campaign at Arthur Hill in the fall.

The Orientation Handbook was revised this year by DIANE PEDERSEN, BILL GALARNO, KEN MONDOR, JOHN HERZOG, and MIRIAM BISHOP. The handbook is published for incoming sophomores.

Corrective Speech Class helps students to overcome difficulties in speech. MISS CATHERINE FURBEE, instructor and supervisor, NORMAN REINKE, GERALDINE THOMAS, and CHARLES KOLHOFF, go through exercises on the stage of the auditorium where the class meets.

Hearing examinations were given this year in place of the TB chest X-rays given last year. The tests were made during art of living, library, government, and economics classes.

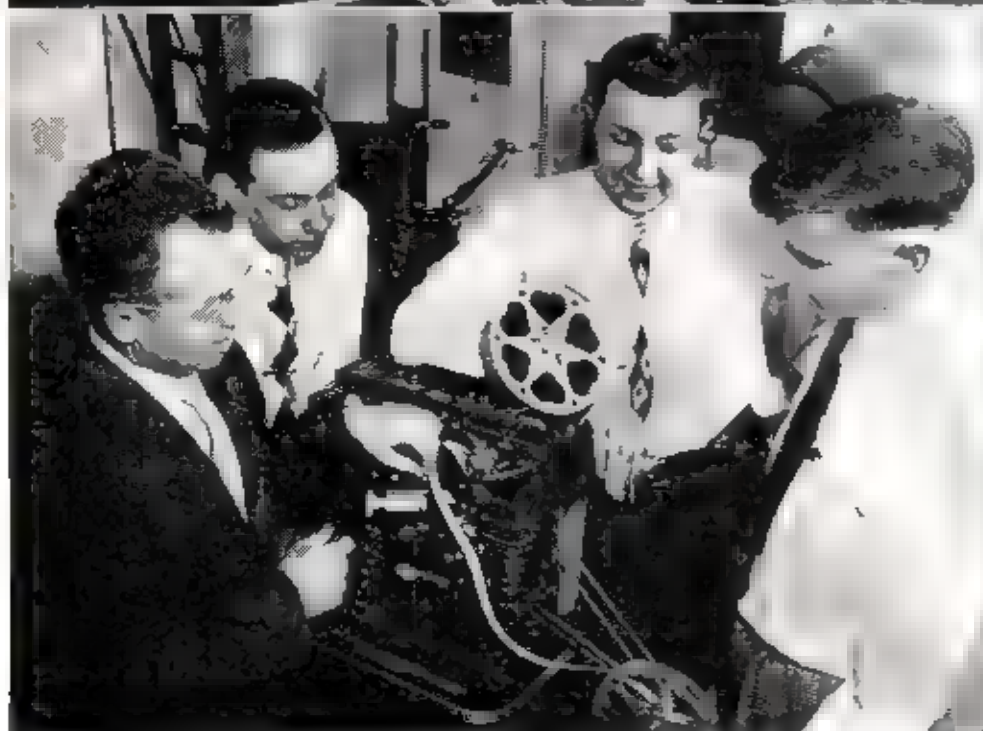

AUDITORIUM HELPERS Augment Productions

The ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE plans and supervises a program of entertainment for the entire school year. This year's members include, standing, KATHERINE TUNIS, DIXIE ARCH, SALLY MOSER, and RICHARD CROOKS. Seated are: MISS CONSTANCE MC WETHY, MISS MARY LEWIS, MRS. NANCY BAXTER, MRS. FRANCES HAMLIN, and MISS BURNICE GIBBS.

PROJECTOR OPERATORS assist with audio-visual programs. MR. SEYMOUR MURPHY reviews the winding of a film for operators EUGENE MERTZ, CLARENCE BRAMEN, and DONALD LUTZ.

STAGE CREW members manage lights, curtain, and properties for all stage productions. DALE PRETZER, EUGENE MERTZ, and STUART GORDON are this year's stage hands. Charles Knoop, not in the picture, is the head of the crew.

Faculty, Alumni Observe 25th ANNIVERSARIES

MRS. COILA START BULLARD became the newest member of Arthur Hill's 25 Year Club at a luncheon June 9, 1949, at the Germania Club. MRS. BULLARD has taught English, language, and social science and was adviser of the Legenda editions of 1926, 1927, and 1928. Outside of school, she is an ardent member of the Saginaw Writers Club. MRS. BULLARD has had over twenty of her poems and articles published in national poetry magazines. A few of her most popular writings are "Point of View", "The Lilacs", "Grand Hotel", "In the Beginning", "Hollyhocks", and a very short story, "Mater Meu". The 25 Year Club was organized two years ago, and the following have been recognized, Mr. A. G. Dersch, Mr. Stanley Schubert, Mr. B. G. Wells, and Miss Florence Wells, who retired in June, 1945

Students representing their parents who were graduated in 1925 from Arthur Hill are MARILYN MOHNK, VIRGINIA VIBERT, BARRY WAITE, KAY KRUEGER, DONNA DUPREE, JEAN SAVAGE, PETER NAGEL, and ESTA VIBERT.

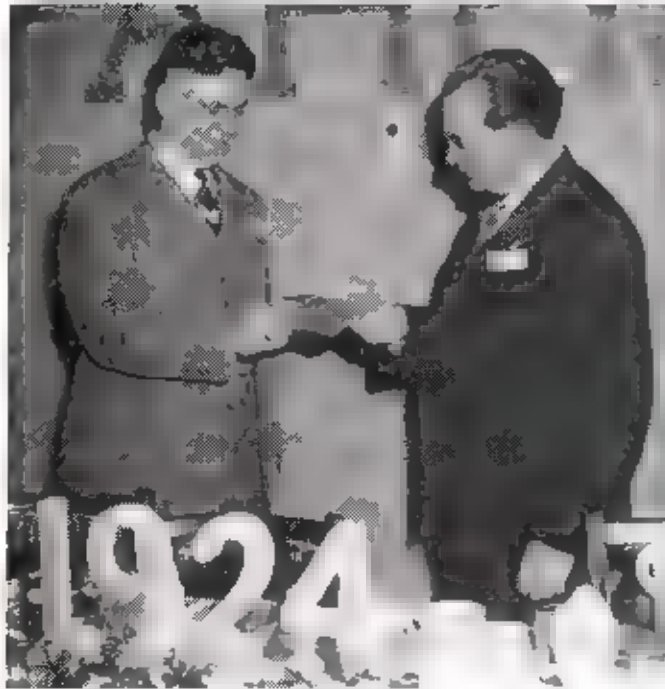

MRS. HAROLD GEORGE and MRS. HILMER HALL check the reservations for the Class of '25 reunion with the 1925 Legenda in connection with MRS. HALL'S work as a member of the contact committee. MRS. GEORGE was general chairman of the event, held May 27 at the Germania Club.

During the '24 reunion, MR. LEONARD ZORN, JR. and MR. WILMER LITTLEJOHN look over the program of the events to follow.

Discussing the events of the evening are MR. ALBERT DERSCH, MISS FLORENCE WELLS, and MR. STANLEY SCHUBERT at the '24 reunion in Frankenmuth.

ACTIVITIES

Hard-Working Hillites Find Satisfaction In Diversified Activities . . .

A Hillite of today, no matter what his interest may be, can find expression for it at Arthur Hill. A list of curricular and extra-curricular activities which includes arts, crafts, dramatics, journalism, music, and sports is sufficient for the talents of all. Since the birth of the Student Organization Ticker in 1930, students can enjoy all organized school activities as spectators for a fraction of the regular price.

Back at the turn of the century at Arthur Hill, there was a dramatics club for boys, a literary society for girls, and sports consisting of football, track, and baseball. And, of course, with the printing of the first Legenda, 1900 was the beginning of Arthur Hill printed journalism history.

CHRISTMAS CAROLERS. JEAN SAVAGE, MARY D. HOLMES, CAROL RICHMOND, and ROBERTA MAC GREGOR combine their voices for the annual Arthur Hill Christmas pageant. They also appeared on many community programs.

CHEERLEADERS, under the direction of MISS MARY MARGARET DOIDGE, spur the team to victory with yells at all pep meetings and games. Band members under the direction of MR. EARL BURNETT, lend volume to the cheers with drums and trumpets.

Enthusiastic football fans stand to see the final plays of the game. Students, parents, and friends fill the bleachers of the new Arthur Hill Memorial Stadium.

DONALD STEWART, a member of the Service Club, goes about his duties of turning the lights on and off between classes.

In the souvenir ticket campaign for the dedication game, the Arthur Hill Band toured the business district to arouse interest. WILFRED WISSMULLER is the salesman. This is one of the many ideas carried out by civic groups to aid in the financing of the stadium.

Students Find CLASSES a Combination of Work and Pleasure

SOPHOMORE ENGLISH students, Virginia Vogel, Donald Shaler, Ronald Dingman, James Fox, and Ann Beaver clear up a tough grammatical point with Mrs. Joyce Mann. Themes, book reports, and grammar study make up the program for English 3 and 4.

IN ADVISORY Mary Lou Bernecker and Nancy Boertman decide to purchase their small pictures. Picture day is typified by the approval, disapproval, and exchange of pictures.

A REFRESHER ARITHMETIC test prompts Charles Hise and Nancy DeFore to take a last-minute glance through their notes. This class is open to seniors who feel they need extra work in mathematics before they leave high school.

TRIGONOMETRY constructions offer no obstructions to Donald Pietz as he explains a "roughie" to Patricia Jahns. This class is open to seniors who wish to major in math.

JUNIOR ENGLISH CLASSES study American literature. Here Mr. Stanley D. Schubert interprets a test question on "The Last of the Mohicans" for Jay Partee. Other classics studied are, "House of Seven Gables," and "Poe's Tales."

PUBLIC SPEAKING training is helpful to future toastmasters, such as Merrill Williams. In this class he learns to write, time, and present speeches with the poise and confidence that satisfies an audience.

ADVISORY time is from 8:30 to 8:45 beginning each day. Guidance in school program and financing of student projects are the business of homeroom time. One annual piece of business is the distribution and sale of individual pictures. Margaret Ellithorp and Miss Amy Gatz watch as Kenneth Grabowski and Jill Ferguson inspect their pictures.

ADVISORY president, Roger Stinson, presents a new flag to Mr. Clarence Stewart's classes. An American flag is the possession of each advisory. Seniors of the advisory financed and presented the new flag. Mr. Stewart holds the old flag as John Taylor and Marlene Trier admire the new one.

Mental Advancement is Stimulated By CLASS Study

CHEMISTRY is the senior science course. Here, surrounded by various chemistry equipment, are Jack Wagle, Kimberley Schrader, Frederick Lickteig, Howard Tessman, Shirley Gifford, Patricia Dengler, and Beverly Owen.

PHYSICS is the junior course for science majors. Here physics students Donald Meyer, Marjorie Nuerminger, and Larry Mulholland write out an experiment that they have finished on index of refraction of glass.

SPANISH CLASSES receive the benefit of the most modern educational methods through the instructive classroom films supplied by Audio-Visual Center to Saginaw schools. However, class discussions and textbook work have their place. Peter Hervey, Janice Jahns, and Marguerite Leppien follow in their books as Sally Heineman translates El Camino Real.

ECONOMICS CLASSES study the current economic trends in the United States, and the risks and profits of different kinds of business enterprises. The highlight of the semester is the stock-market project, in which the students prepare an imaginary stock market report, and buy stocks. At the end of the project, they see if they have made a profit or loss. Here, under the watchful eye of Mr. Bryant Wilson, the class listens to a panel discussion by Francis Horn, Joanne Dankert, Peter Young, and Jack Wagle.

FRENCH STUDENTS, in addition to their regular work, read letters and newspapers written in the French language sent from France. They also write letters in French. Members of Mrs. Marjory Jacobson's classes watch Lois Klemm, as she writes a French sentence on the board. The intent students are Richard Kostoff, Shirley Lampel, Marjorie Campbell, Mary D. Holmes, Joycelyn Dorr, and Carol Malmgren.

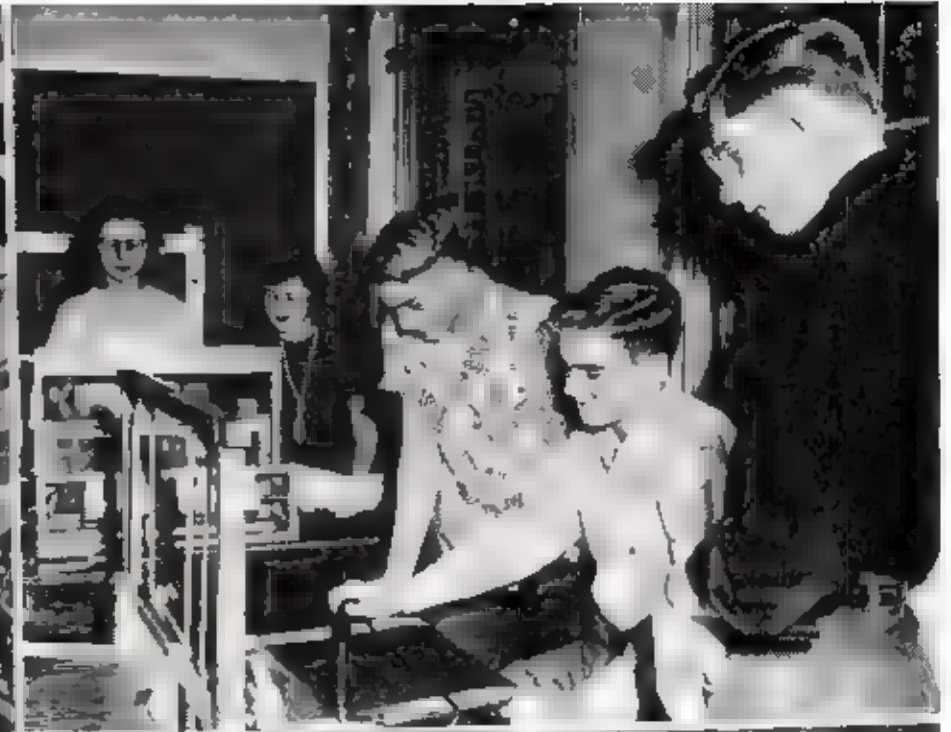

GEOGRAPHY STUDENTS learn to keep up with world affairs through constant study of places in the world spot-light. The knowledge gained about the ever-changing boundaries and many other somewhat obscure points are brought out in classroom discussion. Maxine Darrell displays her knowledge of geography by locating the place in discussion on the map for Richard Wood, Donald Avery, and Mr. George Purdy, instructor.

GERMAN CLASSES find that the study of the language is both useful and interesting. While first and second year students read from their textbooks, only third year students have a large enough knowledge of the language to read German novels. Going over their lessons are third-year students Herbert Kleekamp and Doris Monsees.

GOVERNMENT CLASSES learn the workings of our local, county, state, and federal governments. Along with the regular classroom discussions and tests, the students read the American Observer, the weekly newspaper, and report on the subjects of current interest. Another interesting diversion from the usual work is Student Government day, in which elected seniors take civic offices. Typical of government classes is Mrs. Sallie Brown's room, as students listen to a report by Alice Wagner.

WORLD HISTORY students study a combination of Ancient History and Modern History, two separate courses. At the start of the year, the classes learn about early man, and early civilization. Towards the end of the year, the students are discussing the First and Second World Wars. As a part of the course, oral and written reports are often handed in. "Boning up" for such a report are Carol Breiter, James Jones, and Carolyn Fedder.

LATIN, while not a spoken language, is still one of the most important languages known. It is the base of almost all modern languages, and becomes invaluable to the student of literature. Besides translating stories and writing short reports, Latin students discuss tales from Roman mythology, and read the great Roman epics, the Aeneid, and the Odyssey. Latin pupils Ann Stromer, Harold Wakeman, Robert Wight, Marjorie Kern, and Phyllis Rummel look at a painting of Ceasar, done as a project.

Students Attain Poise Through CLASS Participation

IN SECOND-YEAR TYPING class, Marilyn Trinklein and Sharon Flynn are engrossed in a speed test. Their goal is accuracy, neatness, and a speed of at least 50 words per minute

JUNIOR ART OF LIVING students, Sally Sorgatz, Ruth Herman, Alice Peto, Charlotte Leddy, and Marion Haubenstricker read the Vogue magazine as a source of information on fashions, one of the class projects for the year

AGRICULTURE students, Lyle LeCronier, Arden Clare, Bob Wegner, and Richard Popp select research material from a map in Mr. Howard Lytle's class. This class is an aid in helping boys to become better farmers.

IN MACHINE SHOP class Lyle LeCronier and Robert Schuette inspect the mechanism of a machine. This class prepares students for home craft and aids in making a decision for industrial work.

IN CRAFTS CLASS, Madeline Nelson, Janice Bovay, Don Stricker, James Enzer, and Jack Guttowsky weave rugs. Such projects are exhibited in the hall display cases

ART CLASSES decorate the school Christmas tree in the front hall for the holiday season. Other projects include posters, showcase displays, charcoal drawings, and water paintings. Left to right are: Ralph Teenier, on the ladder, Arlene Seehase, Patricia Dice, Virginia Ostermann.

MECHANICAL DRAWING class leads students Conrad Seidel and Ronald Krueger into drafting intricate designs. This work prepares the students for industrial work or further architectural study.

JUNIOR GYMNASIUM CLASSES go through the exercises which are a part of the physical education program. The girls are marked on the number of exercises they can do, neatness, and general class participation. This class meets on alternate days to art of living.

LIBRARY is the study period for all Hillites. The two libraries on either side of the auditorium accommodate about 210 students each period. Here, Malcolm Hopper gets assistance from Mr. Harve Light, as Frank Jank does some concentrated study

Student Interest is Furthered Through CLUBS

The LATIN CLUB strives to create an interest in old Roman life as well as to increase interest in Latin through their rank raising point system. Club officers are TERRY ANDRE, secretary; RUTH GLASS, BARBARA RICHTER, point chairmen; GLORIA DUWE, treasurer; MARJORIE CAMPBELL, president, and MARY D. HOLMES, vice-president.

The GERMAN CLUB members combine their school loyalty with their money making project and come up selling loyalty pins. The special interest of this group is that of creating interest in German and providing the opportunity to enjoy it. LORRAINE SCHLEIMER, secretary, ROBERTA BAUSTERT, president, JUNIOR WASHER, MRS. COILA BULLARD, adviser, and JOHN RUPP are leaders of this organization.

FUTURE RETAILERS OF AMERICA CLUB acquaints prospective clerks with the modern methods of selling. JOAN KLIN, vice-president, and CARL MILLER, president, lead this progressive group.

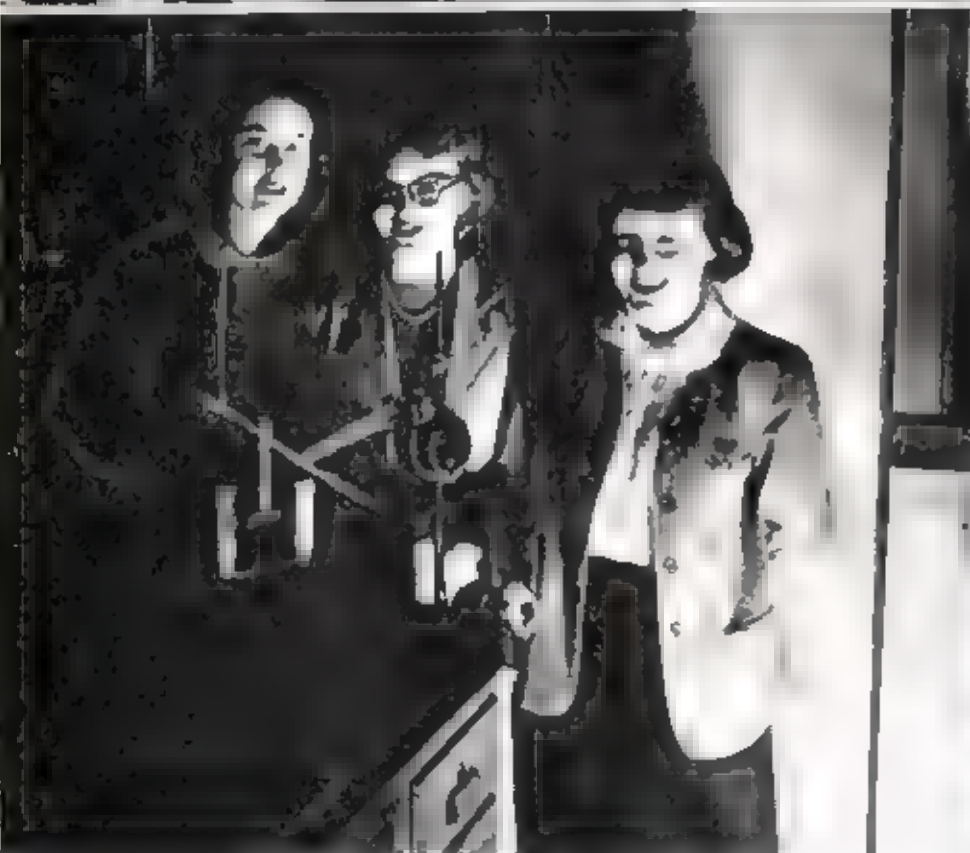

The SPANISH CLUB year is climaxed by the all-school dance, the Sombrero Swing, which is the product of the club's desire to create interest and understanding for Spanish ways and customs. Hard workers here are officers JACQUELINE WATT, president; LAURA MUIRHEAD, vice-president; DOW TUNIS, treasurer; NANCY MACK, secretary; and DONNA KYES, point chairman.

FRENCH CLUB activities include those of making pom-poms for the Thanksgiving Game, and promoting interest in French. Plans for the annual sale of pom-poms are uppermost in the minds of LOIS KLEMM, secretary, HELEN NEIDERSTADT, president; SHIRLEY LAMPEL, treasurer, BEVERLY KRUEGER, advertising agent, and MARY D. HOLMES, vice-president.

The BOC CLUB provides opportunity for musically talented students to shine before an appreciative audience. The initial letters of band, orchestra, and choir provide the name of the organization headed by MR. EARL D. BURNETT, adviser, NANCY SCHOTT, treasurer, DONNA HATHAWAY, secretary, and PATRICIA LYTLE, president.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA CLUB was organized to encourage students to enter the teaching profession. ROBERT BRANDT, treasurer, NANCY ROBERTS, vice-president, DICK CROOKS, president, and JACQUELINE WATT, secretary, go over the national program.

CLUBS Offer Guidance in Leadership and Cooperation

BIOS LOGIA CLUB in its effort to further the knowledge of biology, each year presents an all-school dance, "Bugs' Ball." Decorations are bugs of all descriptions created in gigantic proportions. MARY ELLEN BAUKUS, president; TERRY ANDRE, treasurer; NORMA RAVAS, and ELSIE FISHER, vice-president, have a look at a piece of standard equipment: a microscope.

The FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA CLUB is part of a national organization, and as such participates in state and national activities. The officers of this agricultural organization for boys are LOVELL KAIN, president; HERBERT KUTSCH, vice-president; and ARTHUR KUTSCH, treasurer. Paul Vasold, secretary, is missing from the picture.

ALCHEMISTS CLUB honors girls excelling in chemistry and aims to further this interest. Their meetings alternate study and recreation. The officers are MARY D. HOLMES, vice-president; BARBARA OLSON, president; and MARILYN CAMPBELL, secretary.

HI Y CLUB aims to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community and meets with inspirational leaders and recognizes the outstanding sophomore boy with a trophy. Socially, the club acts as a co-sponsor for after-game dances. CHARLES MANSKE, vice president; LOUIS REINKE, secretary; RUDOLPH SCHMITT, treasurer; CHARLES WIFE, president, are the officers of this organization.

RIFLE CLUB members meet for enjoyment of the recreation. They attempt to teach the safe and correct use of firearms. PAUL WO' FEIL RONALD BEAN, president; MR. BRYANT WILSON, sponsor; and DONALD MEYER, vice-president, watch JACK BINDON, scorer, and CARL MEYERHOLT, treasurer, prepare to shoot.

The FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS organized to create a better understanding between the school and employers by sponsoring talks by business men for interested students. Charter members of this newcomer to Arthur Hill's organizations are ALICE MEYER, CLEO HULL, ROBERT LYONS, and MARGARET ELLITHORP.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA CLUB is a chapter of the national and state organization by this name. Its program promotes every responsibility of the homemaker. Club members elected NANCY MEEHLEDER, president; DIXIE EMERSON, secretary; DOROTHY SCHLUCKEBIER, vice-president; and NORMA MAAS, treasurer.

The CRUCIBLE CLUB honors boys who are outstanding in chemistry. Initiations and home meetings take place every other week. Officers of this group, the oldest continuous club at Arthur Hill, are CHARLES KNOOP, vice-president, WILLIAM WASHABAUGH, president; and JEROME LAKE, secretary.

The BOWLING CLUB provides another recreation for girls. Some of the members who journey to Parkland Lanes each Thursday are MARION WACKER, secretary, and EDNA DIENER, president.

Y-TEENS CLUB aims to help girls to know themselves better and to serve others. This group is the largest club at Arthur Hill. Y-Teens present an award annually to the outstanding sophomore girl, and co-sponsor after-game dances. Club officers are KAY KRUEGER, vice-president; BETTY BROCKWAY, president; and CAROL RICHMOND, treasurer.

DONALD PASEL carries the beat on his drums for the dance band at the "Bugs Ball."

Golden Jubilee!

PAGEANTS Prove Large Extra-Curricular Drawing Cards

Each year at Arthur Hill, the dramatics department, under the supervision of Mr. Stanley D. Schubert, presents two pageants—Christmas and Commencement. For the two productions there are three different scripts which are given in three year rotation, so that when the student finishes his three year tenure at Arthur Hill he has seen a total of six pageants.

The Christmas productions are Emmanuel, A Christmas Carol, and Why The Chimes Rang.

America The Beautiful, One World, and The Four Freedoms are the pageants used for Commencement Exercises.

Students who served as the spirits of Religion, Agriculture, Education, Welfare, Science, and Enterprise, in last year's pageant, America The Beautiful, were RUTH KLAMMER, RUTH GLASS, ROBERTA MAC GREGOR, KAY DABBERT, BETTY HARTLE, LORRAINE AVERY, and MARLENE TRIER.

In A Christmas Carol two poor fund solicitors, TERRY ANDRE and WILLIAM GALARNO, are met with an emphatic refusal from tyrannical Ebenezer Scrooge, ROLAND TROGAN, while the impoverished employee, Bob Crachit, HENRY MARKSBURY, works industriously.

Tiny Tim has just finished his immortal words, "God bless us . . . everyone!" and the Crachit family prepares to drink the toast. They are MARY PACKARD, DOROTHY PRESSPRICH, JOHN WEBER, ROBERT WOLFGAM, MIRIAM BISHOP, and HENRY MARKSBURY.

Over tea, KATHERINE TUNIS, DOW TUNIS, CAROL REAMS, DONALD CAMERON, and SUZANNE RUPP humorously discuss the grouchy Scrooge.

Members of the Crachit family, DOROTHY PRESSPRICH, HENRY MARKSBURY, MARY PACKARD, ROBERT WOLFGAM, (hidden) and MIRIAM BISHOP, attempt to cheer one another after the death of Tiny Tim; as RUTH GLASS, the spirit, and ROLAND TROGAN, Scrooge, look on.

DRAMATICS Means Enjoyment for Both Audience, Actor

Family pride was involved in the play IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE, a revival for Arthur Hill, due to the wager made by two business competitors concerning their sons' success in the commercial world. Here WILLIAM GALARNO is elated over a publicity stunt, while TERRY ANDRE and MARY PACKARD are dubious. Others in the play were Rudy Shiffman, Lois Klemm, Henry Marksbury, Don Springer, Dick Kostoff, James Karpicke, Ruth Glass, Bernard Bolt, and Marguerite Leppien.

Music, Speech, Acting Combine for BAND BOUNCE

Another Band Bounce number featured GERRY DREYER in a fast tap dance routine, "backed up" by the members of the 1949 Band Bounce Chorus.

Members of the chorus open with a Tyrolean number, replete with authentic costumes.

BILL SANDS, known as the "Magical Gretonas," gives his act with the help of his assistant, SHIRLEY CHERRY. This was one of the many features of the '49 Band Bounce.

Clowning comes natural for BOB BURDITT, JIM LIST, BOB SIMON, DICK GUGEL, and CHARLES WIESE. Their act, a lampoon of a Barber Shop quarter, set the audience in fine fettle.

Members of the Dixieland Band, BILL MILLER, DICK CASE, TOM GOCHNAUER, JOHN R. STEWART, and VIC GRAUF interpret an American jazz classic.

The NEWS Holds Medalist, Gallup Award

MARILYN JAKES, editor-in-chief, with eighteen fellow seniors and juniors, edited 14 issues of the Arthur Hill News which earned Medalist rating from Columbia University's awards for the first semester issues. In the fall the News was the recipient of the 7th consecutive Gallup Award

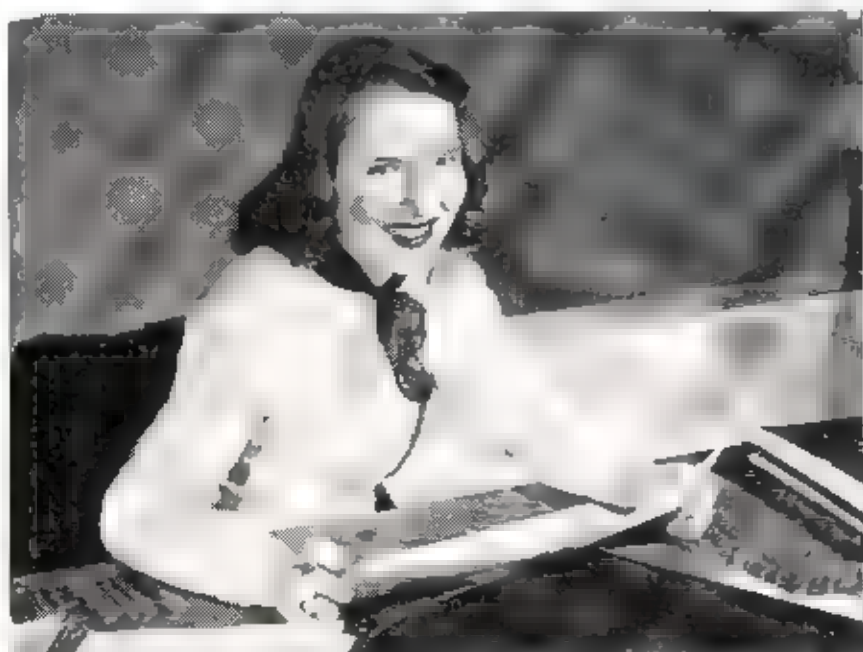

Staff reporters ARNALEE CALLAN, NANCY LEE HAAR, ALICE WAGNER, JACQUELYN JOHNSON, MARILYN CAMPBELL, and JANE MAC ARTHUR compare notes before embarking to cover their daily beats. Journalism students must have fifty inches printed before they are recognized as staff members.

Managing editor, HENRY MARKSBURY, and associates JOAN TESSIN and MARLENE TRIER confer on page makeup. Henry was M.C. for city school broadcasts of WSAM and a delegate to the National Scholastic Press Association convention in Chicago last November.

Editorial page editor LARRY PIKE, photographer CURTIS LEECH, exchange editor NANCY GUY, feature writer ROLAND TROGAN, photographer ALWYN HANSEN, feature editors AUDREY LLEWELLYN and SALLY BUTTS receive instructions from editor Marilyn Jakes before making plans for the next issue. Larry was a delegate to the National Scholastic press convention in Chicago. Sally was chosen by the staff to be editor of the annual Junior-Sophomore issue

Bookkeeper CATHERINE PETERS advises advertising salesman HARVEY JACKSON and RUTHE FISHER on the cost of the paper. Harvey and Ruthe spend many hours outside of school in Saginaw business districts formulating the advertisements that finance the newspaper. Ruthe was managing editor of the junior issue.

The LEGENDA Again Takes Top State Honors

Quill and Scroll, international journalism honor society, honored the following publication students for outstanding work in journalism: Lois Bennett, Jean Ann Buse, Dione Butler, Sally Britts, Armalee Cullen, Merilyn Campbell, Carl Fenske, Elaine Fischer, Nancy Giv, Alwyn Hansen, Katherine Harvie, Lou Ann Hensler, Marilyn Jakes, Oscar Koepf, Elaine Koepf, Lorraine Avery, Anne Hewelley, Ted MacRae, Henry Markstady, Doris Mossner, Catherine Peters, Larry Pike, Doris Ruhlig, Joan Toss, Marjorie Campbell, and Roland Toger.

ELAINE KOEPFINGER, DIONE BUTLER, and DORIS RUHLIG check headlines on the dummy pages, the foundation of the Legenda.

JUNE FARRELL and TWILA MOONEY identify pictures for the activity section while WILLIAM A. KLEKAMP and ARLENE SEEHAST work on copy for the sports section.

TED MACRAE, as class chairman, plans layouts and edits copy. At Journalism Day at Michigan State College in October he was privileged to accept top state recognition of the 1949 Legenda. Ted was delegate for Legenda to the NSPA Convention in Chicago.

KATHERINE HARVIE and DOROTHY NELLETT proof read advertising copy just back from the printers, while PAUL JACQUISH takes time out from snapping pictures to see how his work looks in print. Typing, an important part in publication of this book, was done largely by LOIS TRINKLEIN, CAROLYN REIN, and JOANNE HIMSEL.

LORRAINE AVERY and JACK ARNDT alphabetize pictures of the 1781 students enrolled in school. The album section is one of the first items to be completed in the publication of the book.

Old Grads, Hillites Mingle at HOMECOMING

QUEEN MARILYN DITTMAR and her attendants, BARBARA BERKOBEN and JUNE HORN, reigned over the homecoming dance and game

DON BECKER, hard-driving junior fullback, crashes over for a touchdown in the dedication game with the Cosmos of Hamtramck. Arthur Hill emerged with a 15-2 victory

The marching band adds the strains of the national anthem to the dedication ceremonies, while a crowd of 8,000 stadium fund boosters watch in reverent silence

Members of the Armed Services carry the Stars and Stripes down the gridiron to open the Arthur Hill Memorial Stadium Dedication. The game commemorated the opening with a 15-2 win over Hamtramck

Leading the Grand March at the homecoming dance are: queen's courtier SALLY MOSER and TFD MAC RAE, attendant BARBARA BERKOBEN and RUDY SHIFFMAN, attendant JUNE HORN and DON BELL, and queen MARILYN DITTMAR and JACK SEARS.

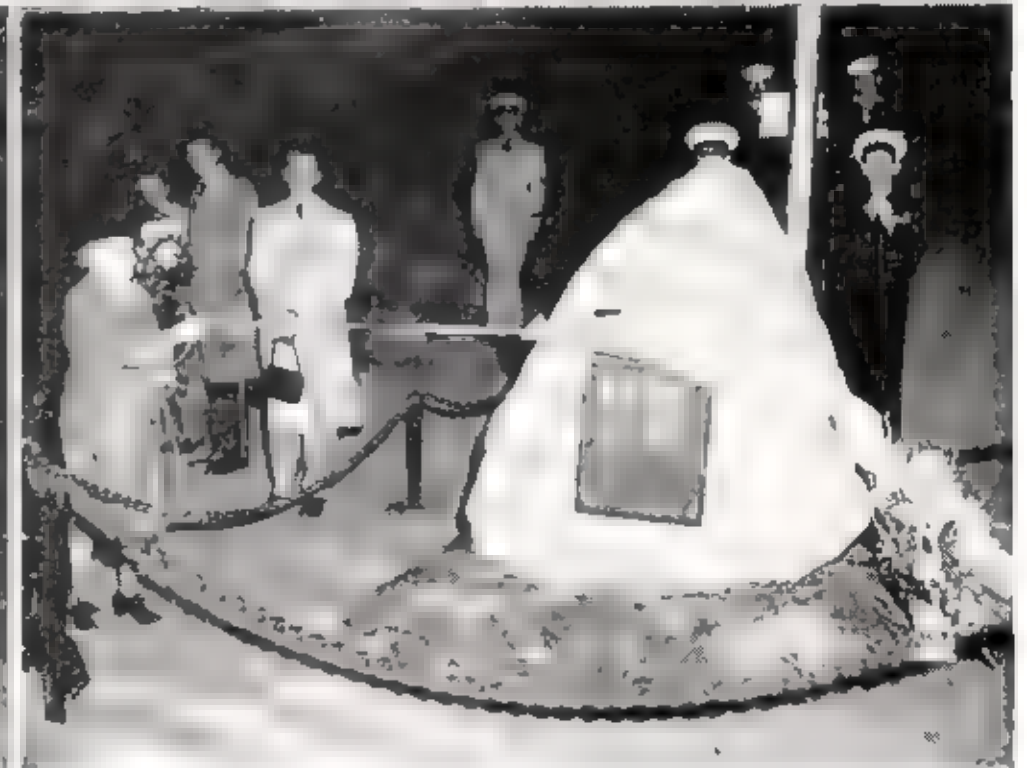

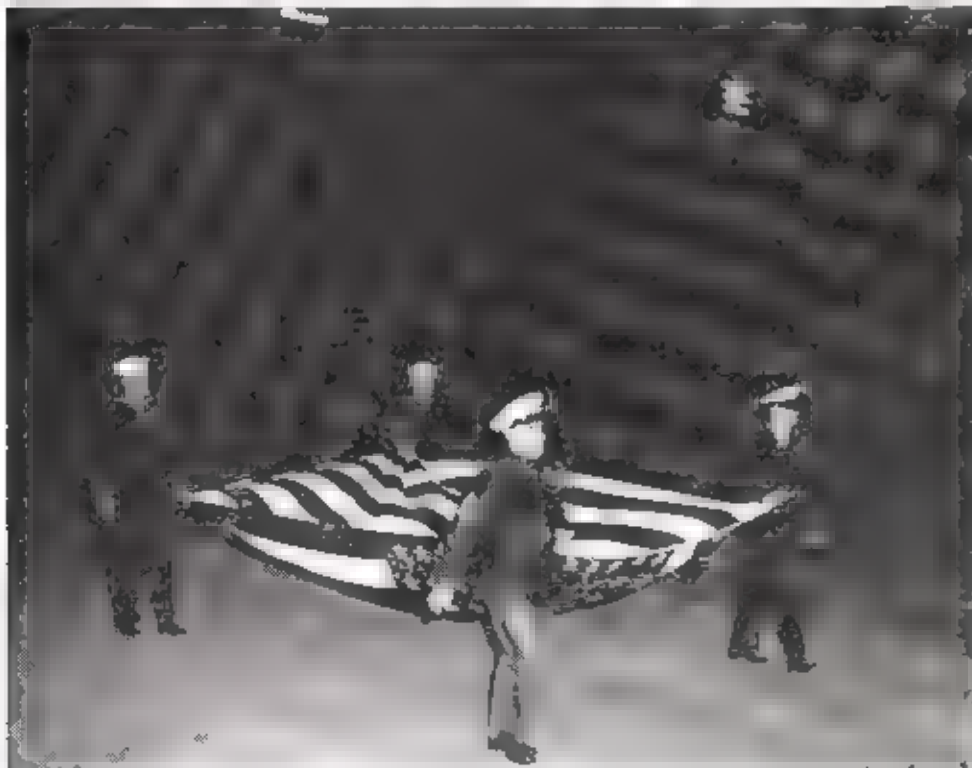

Hillites conclude the Homecoming celebration by mixing with the old grads at the dance which followed a 41-6 victory over Bay City.

Line Coach GLENN MASON and yardman MR. ALEX WATERS view the cheering throng of students at the pep assembly prior to the Homecoming contest, as they assure the team of their support.

An unidentifiable mass of Lumberjack and Trojan players tangle as Arthur Hill meets Saginaw High in the Turkey Day game which ended satisfactorily for all with a 13-13 tie

Groundbreaking ceremony for the Memorial Stadium. MR. JULIUS A. IPPEL turns the first shovel of soil, while MR. ROBERT CARL VOGT, MR. HAROLD VOLLMER, and SUPERINTENDENT CHESTER F. MILLER check the stadium plans, and MR. STANLEY SWIFT and PRINCIPAL I. M. BROCK look on

MRS. LEO HALEY uncovers the bronze dedicatory plaque to Arthur Hill's 77 Gold Star Alumni, as MARY ELLEN DAUKUS, school president PAUL HINKIN, MR. HUBERT HALEY and representatives of the Armed Services stand by, while the honor guard prepares to raise the flag

LUMBERJACK GRIDDERS Dedicate Stadium With 15-2 Win

CLUB HILLITE—A Meeting Place and Pleasant Diversion

Whether you come to dance, play games or just watch, everyone is welcome at Club Hillite. The crowd mills about the dance floor at ease.

Club Hillite "Big Thirteen" members JIM PACKER, BILL WASHABAUGH, BETTY BROCKWAY, CHARLES MANSKE, JANET WAGONER, and JERRY LAKE redecorate tables to be used by Club Hillite. Other members of the committee are Sue Willets, Kay Krueger, Pat Dice, Edna Diener, Jim McKenna, Jack Smith and William Klee-kamp. This steering committee supervises and plans all Club Hillite parties with the assistance of different advisory helpers each time

Before the Cranberry Creep, DICK CANSFIELD, CHARLES MANSKE, EUGENE MERTZ, ROBERT GARRET, and WILLIAM KLEEKAMP try to guess the number of cranberries in the jar. These boys are only a few of those who clamored to win the turkey given to the person who came closest to the right answer.

JERRY MATSON and his opponent engage in a game of ping pong. Cards, checkers, and other games may be enjoyed at every Club Hillite. Students go to the host and check out games, and then return them.

Dance Band vocalist, NANCY BOYER, sings for an appreciative audience.

Biology Club students work on the decorations for the "Bugs' Ball." They are SALLY BAILLY, JANE WEBER, DONNA HATHAWAY, and MURIEL LIEFFERS.

SENIOR WEEK is a Time of Mixed Emotions

FAY CUTHBERTSON, LEE QUICKSELL, and MARY LOU O'DONNELL, stop in front of the trophy case to chat about the many activities of senior week

After having been measured in February, seniors call for caps and gowns at the opening of senior week.

After three years of thirty-five minute lunch periods in the cafeteria, seniors and their guests settle down to the dinner served them there before the Prom

1950 seniors look forward to their graduation as LLOYD YEO measures FRANK POMMERVILLE for his cap and gown.

Calling cards make memories of fellow students lasting. Exchanging cards are JOAN SMITH, BETTY TRIPPENSEE, MATILDA TODOROFF, LEONARD THOMAS, PAUL BEACH, and HARRY JONES.

During the grand march, JOYCE DYE and her escort form the arch for ELAINE BUEHLER and ERNST GRABOWSKI.

SENIOR WEEK is the Grand Finale of High School Life

An unending line of GRADUATES form in the gym before the senior assembly.

At Baccalaureate ceremony, DR. HENRY W. FISHER speaks to graduates. This service is conducted on the Sunday of graduation week.

Seniors line up in preparation for the Grand March, the last dance of the Senior Prom. Lamont Corp provided music for the '49 Prom

To the music of "Pomp and Circumstance" SENIORS march in and take their place at the Senior Assembly. Here they bid underclassmen goodbye by reading the class will and prophesy.

Senior Prom, the social climax of senior days, is enjoyed by seniors and their guests on the Monday of graduation week. This is the only formal school dance of the year

Commencement, the final activity for seniors, takes place at the Saginaw Civic Auditorium. Here diplomas are distributed and seniors become alumni of Arthur Hill

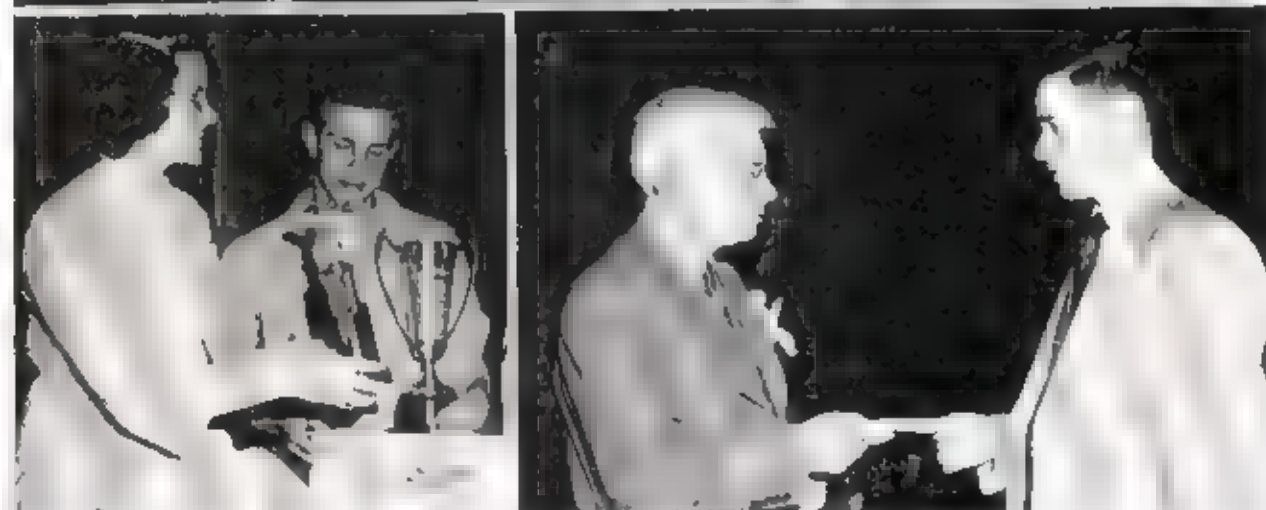

HONORS Add Aura of Distinction to Achievements

1949 GRADUATION HONORS

The Big Three on graduation night accept the congratulations of Principal I. M. BROCK. Left to right are DAVID BROWNE, whose award of the Ippel Cup comes as the climax of an active high school career; MARJORIE CRAMER, who won the Arthur Hill Otto Roeser $1000 scholarship for the highest scholastic standing of those competing; and EDWARD THOMPSON, an eight-letter man, whose athletic prowess won him the University of Michigan Plaque

HALL OF FAME

Each year the senior class elects by popular vote the members of their class toward whom they feel the friendliest. This year's Hall of Popularity echoes with the hello's of twelve seniors. For them neither studies nor activities were taken too seriously to rob them of that lighter touch of popularity. The elect are, first row LORRAINE AVFRY, TOM CAWLEY, MARY ELLEN BAUKI'S, and PAUL HINKIN, second row BETTY BROCKWAY, GLENN HOERNLEIN, MARILYN DITTMAR, and BILL ROOKER; third row: MARY D. HOLMES, JACK SEARS, SHIRLEY KLEIN, and DAVID VANCE.

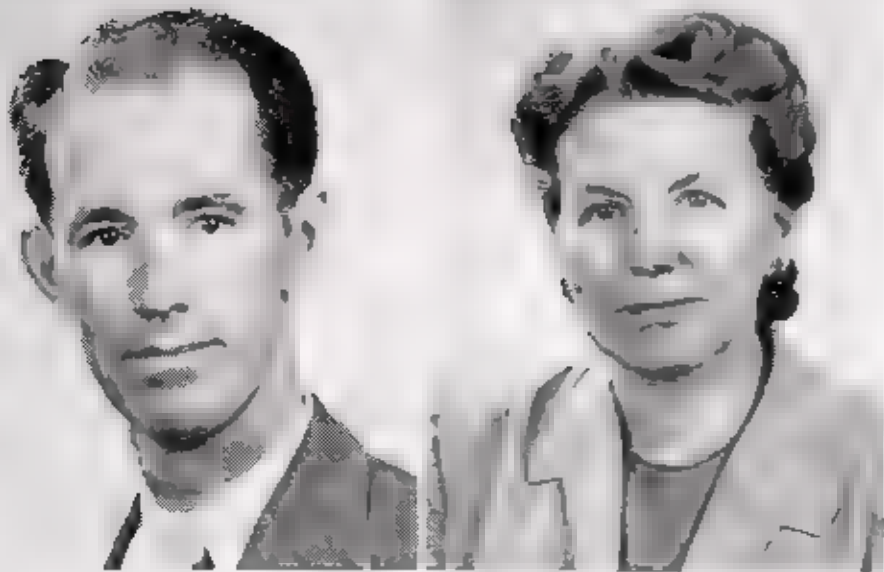

ALBUM

FACES . . . THERE ARE A LOT MORE OF 'EM TODAY

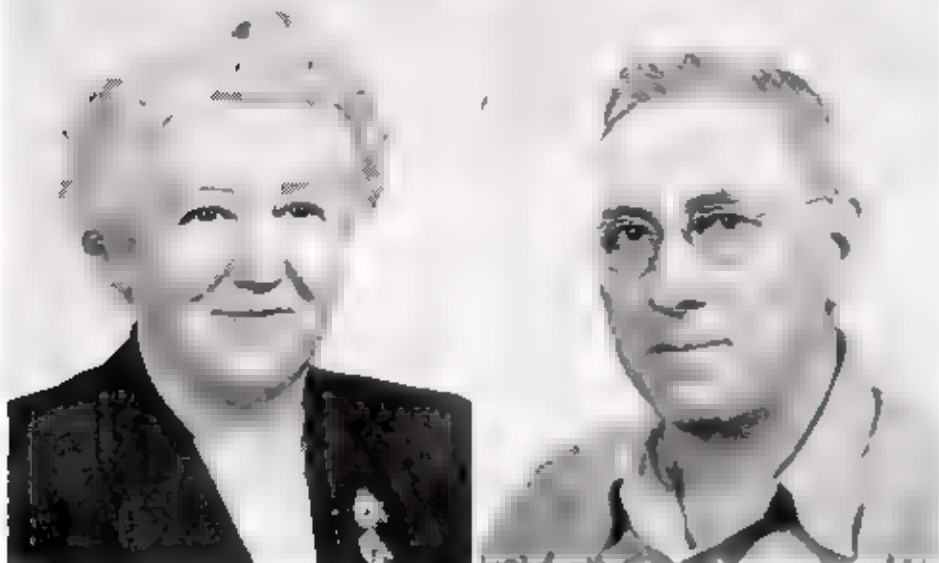

From twelve teachers to a faculty, cafeteria, and maintenance staff 76 strong . . . from 225 students to 1781 . . . these are the changes five decades have wrought in the Legenda countenance of the Lumberjacks. Style in clothes and hairdos have changed these 50 years, but still each Hillite face is friendly and smiling.

In the first Legenda the student body was pictured in four group pages . . . modern Hillites occupy 38 panels of individual poses. Gone are the odd-shaped senior pictures and the accompanying quotations taken from English literature. Now the activities in which a senior participates speak for his accomplishments. Pictures, like styles, have changed through the years.

MR. RAYMOND W. MORROW, assistant principal, has charge of clocks, keys, lockers, and attendance. He also serves as boys' adviser, Service Club adviser, and faculty cabinet secretary.

MISS ETHEL A. PETERSON, dean of girls, helps the girls solve their problems, and has charge of Arthur Hill's social calendar, scholarships, college enrollment, student nurse schedule, and Club Hillite activities.

MISS ELLEN G. GREEN, cafeteria manager, has charge of the senior dinner and student cabinet dinner. She also is faculty social committee chairman.

MR. JAY SHOEBRIDGE, maintenance head, with his staff keeps the building and grounds neat and attractive.

Day, Party, Introduce Sophs to Arthur Hill

At Sophomore Day, which is held in June for the sophomores who come to Arthur Hill the next fall, JANET MYERS and BRUCE MUELLER admire the showcase display.

Sophomores begin their social life at Arthur Hill with the Sophomore Party in October. Members of the planning committee this year were JILL FERGUSON, SALLY WALLACE, BARBARA MAUL, JAMES KEARFUL, and BARBARA ROUSH.

New sophomores, CATHERINE SCHULTZ, JANET SCHWARTZ, NORMA MAAS, and BEVEPLY KABOBEL leave the auditorium after the assembly.

The Sophomore Party includes dancing and entertainment. Here, NANCY ELLIS gives her interpretation of Al Jolson.

At the Sophomore Party one of the feature attractions is, of course, the refreshments. Here, refreshments are being enjoyed during intermission.

The School Yearbook A Community Project

Now as in 1900 the community shares in the production of the Legenda, as it does in many other school activities. In 1900, 58 merchants made the Legenda possible. Today 5 of the original advertisers, in addition to 148 new ones, place the total number of advertisements in this Legenda at 153.

MEMBER F. D. I. C.

This year, as in years past, it has been our pleasure to work with Miss Mattie G. Crump and the students of her journalism class at Arthur Hill High School in producing the Legenda. We want to take this opportunity to express our thanks to them, and to extend to all members of the 1950 graduating class our heartiest good wishes for the success and happiness in life for which their education has so well prepared them. We "oldsters" who are in the business world, and particularly those of us in the Graphic Arts, know full well the value of the wonderful education you have been privileged to receive. We trust you will make the most of it.
